

Michael J. McDonald

Attorney Michael J. McDonald, founding partner of McDonald & MacGregor, LLC., has earned a reputation as one of the most active and distinguished personal injury lawyers in Northeastern Pennsylvania through his extensive career as a courtroom attorney. He has successfully tried many types of cases, ranging from motor vehicle accidents to medical malpractice, and has been trial counsel in some of the largest verdicts and settlements in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Attorney McDonald has had the great honor and privilege of being chosen for certification and/or membership in several prestigious national organizations including the National Board of Trial Advocacy, the National Board of Civil Pretrial Practice Advocacy, the American Board of Trial Advocates and the Million Dollar Advocates Forum. He has also been continuously selected over the years for recognition in respected legal publications such as Best Lawyers in America and Pennsylvania Super Lawyer. In 2023 he was selected by City and State Pennsylvania as a member of the Law Power 100, a list of the top leaders in the Pennsylvania legal community.

Attorney McDonald has also been repeatedly chosen by fellow lawyers for leadership positions in prestigious legal organizations. He has served as President of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, the Lackawanna Bar Association, the Federal Bar Association of the Middle District of Pennsylvania and the Northeastern Pennsylvania Trial Lawyers' Association. He is an active volunteer in many community groups as well.

He is a graduate of Villanova University, and the Penn State Dickinson School of Law where he was awarded the International Academy of Trial Lawyers Award for distinguished achievement in trial advocacy.

Attorney McDonald is honored to be a member of the Pennsylvania Commission on Judicial Independence.
