

Judge Brandon P. Neuman

Judge Brandon P. Neuman, elected to a ten-year term on the Pennsylvania Superior Court in November 2025, has spent his career in service to the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Prior to his election to the Superior Court, Judge Neuman spent almost eight years on the Washington County Court of Common Pleas. During this time, he presided over Civil, Criminal, Family, and Veterans' Specialty Court Matters.

Before taking the bench, Judge Neuman was elected to four terms to the Pennsylvania House of Representatives. As a State Legislator, he authored laws to reform rape kit processing, clearing backlogs to protect victims and expedite justice. Neuman also served on the House Judiciary Committee, Pennsylvania Commission on Crime Delinquency, Pennsylvania Commission on Sentencing, Chair of the Offense-Related Guidelines Review Subcommittee, as well as Interstate Commission for Juveniles.

Judge Neuman started his career as a trial lawyer handling complex civil litigation.

A lifelong resident of Washington County, he is a proud class of 2000 graduate of Canon McMillan High School. Judge Neuman earned his Undergraduate Degree at the University of Richmond and Juris Doctorate at Duquesne University Kline School of Law. Judge Neuman credits much of his success to the foundation built in Washington County.

Judge Brandon Neuman and his wife Carrie continue to live in Washington County, where they are raising their four children.
